

Five Handy Hints on Basic IP Protection

1. Use [™] next to your company or product/service names or logos to indicate that you consider the name to be a trade mark, ie STRATAGEM[™].
2. Only use the symbol [®] if your name is actually a registered trade mark.
3. Add copyright claims to all written items and pictures, ie © Stratagem IPM Limited 2010.
4. Remember that registering a company name with Companies House does not provide protection against others using a similar name.
5. Consider registered protection for trade marks, designs and inventions before disclosing them to others – talk with a patent/trade mark attorney.

Call Abigail Woolhouse on 01223 550740 for a free initial discussion

Stratagem IPM Limited

Strategically Different![™]

Five Handy Hints on Basic IP Protection

1. Use [™] next to your company or product/service names or logos to indicate that you consider the name to be a trade mark, ie STRATAGEM[™].
2. Only use the symbol [®] if your name is actually a registered trade mark.
3. Add copyright claims to all written items and pictures, ie © Stratagem IPM Limited 2010.
4. Remember that registering a company name with Companies House does not provide protection against others using a similar name.
5. Consider registered protection for trade marks, designs and inventions before disclosing them to others – talk with a patent/trade mark attorney.

Call Abigail Woolhouse on 01223 550740 for a free initial discussion

Stratagem IPM Limited

Strategically Different![™]